"First Female Whole Body Donor in AIIMS, New Delhi : Gave a new lease of life to Five people - Organ Donation is an Art of Living beyond Death"

"37-year-old woman is AIIMS's first full body donor" - Times Of India (6th Jan 2013)

NEW DELHI: The 37-year-old Chandrakanta Rawat wife of Balbir Singh Rawat from Motadhak-Kotdwara, Uttarakhand who died due to Brain Death on 5th January has become the first whole body donor at All India Institute of Medical Sciences this year. Five needy patients got new lease of life by her donation. While her heart, liver and two kidneys have been used for transplant other 32 organs like the cornea and bones are preserved for future use, Dr Anil Vij, Chief of the Organ Retrieval and Banking Organisation at the institute, said.

"Noble Gesture : Art of Living Beyond Death" Hindustan Times (11th Jan 2013)

KOTDWARA : Ten of family members of Chandrakanta Rawat who donated her whole body to AIIMS New Delhi, and gifted new lease of life to five needy patient, have pledged to follow her example and signed the Organ Donation Forms of AIIMS's Organ Retrieval Banking Organisation. Chandrakanta and her family members have also sent out a strong message of social concern by this selfless sacrifice. The family members call this an act of true homage to departed soul. They would exhort others to do the same.

Bal Bharati institute is run by Chandrakanta's family hence they are campaigning for AIIMS's ORBO to exhort others to do the same and be a part of "Chandrakanta Ek Prerna" by gifting a Life to some needy. We have Organ Donation Forms and procedure with us. Contact if you wish a Noble Gesture.

happiness. You must know as much as possible about the School, faculty and academic excellence. A little critical analysis will lead you to "Bal Bharati ... A school with a difference" which has a genuine commitment to meet and understand the needs of your child.

Bal Bharati welcomes you

Realization of an individual potential is one of the basic aims of education. Positive attitudes, self esteem, self image, goal setting and values are intrinsic in the process of development.

Happiness is the only ultimate aim of every human being and hence it is equally important to know and remember that " Children cannot be made good by keeping them happy, but they can be made happy by keeping them good. "

The far most thing in developing and achieving the overall excellence of child certainly depends on the best curriculum, infrastructure and environment, but definitely it is the good approach, full interest and complete dedication of the parents as well the teachers is of immense importance.

Bal Bharati is co-educational English medium school which aims at developing the full mental, spiritual, physical and intellectual potential of each child with holistic education.

Basically here, education is not synonymous with textual literacy but is more akin to skill building.

Bal Bharatians are enlightened on the richness of traditional Indian values and ethos, by bringing to their knowledge how through perseverance, piety, prayer and sacrifice the holy saints and eminent personalities have been achieving mammoth targets. Bal Bharatians are inculcated with a spirit of independence, initiative, self-reliance, due respect for seniors and elders.

MISSION

Make every child an independent thinker with quality education to achieve their dreams and be proud to parents.
